Seasonal Information

Spring in Chiba City March-April

Chiba Castle Sakura Festival

Inohana Park, set among the ruins of a former castle, is now one of Chiba City's most famous cherry blossom viewing spots. The "Chiba Castle Cherry Blossom Festival" is held in late-March annually, coinciding with the best time to view the pink petals. After taking some snaps of the combination of cherry blossoms and the restored castle tower, you can sample some food and beer made with local ingredients.

Summer in Chiba City July-August

Makuhari Beach Fireworks Festival

Makuhari Beach Fireworks Festa, held in early August annually, is the one of the largest firework displays in Japan, consisting of about 20,000 fireworks. These fireworks launched over the Makuhari Beach provide an astonishing view of a colorful night sky, reflecting magnificently on the surface of Tokyo Bay.

Autumn in Ichihara City November-December

Autumn Leaves in Yoro River Valley

Nestled in the heart of the Boso peninsula, the Yoro Valley is one of the most famous sightseeing spots in Chiba Prefecture. You can enjoy a wide range of tourist attractions such as hot spring, waterfall tour and local gourmet. You can appreciate the spectacular view of the colorful fall foliage surrounded by waterfalls. The best time to view the leaves is from late November to early December.

Winter in Chiba City January-April

Strawberry Picking

Chiba City has many tourist farms where visitors can enjoy strawberry picking from January to May. Once you try the perfectly ripe, freshly picked strawberries, you won't be able to forget the delicious taste! Another feature is that Chiba City farms grow many varieties of strawberries, so why not compare them all?
