Seasonal Information

Spring in Chiba City March-April

Chiba Castle Sakura Festival

This is a cherry blossom festival held at Inohana park, where Tane-tane Chiba settled and Chiba city originated. You can enjoy cherry blossom viewing and performances conducted(performed) by traditional artists while almost 100 of Somei-Yoshino trees are in bloom from late March to early April. It would be romantic to see Chiba castle and those trees are lighted(lit) up.

Summer in Chiba City July-August

Makuhihongo Beach Fireworks Festival

The annual summer tradition is a historic display of fireworks, attended by more than a quarter million people. Over 20,000 fireworks are launched in an hour, painting the horizon. People also like wearing Yukata, which is casual type of Japanese traditional clothes at the festival. There are a lot of food stands in the venue, so you can enjoy not only fireworks but also foods!

Autumn in Ichihara City November-December

Autumn Leaves in Yoro River Valley

Located in the center of the Boso Peninsula, the Yoro Valley was formed by the flow of the Yoro River, which today flows through Ichihara City. It has many attractions, such as hot spring resorts. There is also waterfall tour, which runs along promenade with wonderful scenery. The most recommended season in Yoro Valley is autumn. You can enjoy the spectacular view of the vivid leaves surrounding the waterfall.
